"Your paper is the answer to a Long Felt Want — it is a Rightwing Grapevine!"

LUCILLE MILLER, Editor, GREEN MOUNTAIN RIFLEMAN, Bethel, Vt.

"I find your copies of RIGHT of interest. I am taking more literature now than I can read or afford . . . RIGHT is short and only comes once a month. I can't keep up with periodicals that come every week; they pile up. Am sending check for three dollars for one year's subscription."

IMOGEN McMURTRY, Housewife Marysville, Calif.

"You anti-Communist scum will soon be sent to a lunatic asylum where you belong. We are watching you closely."

ANONYMOUS, New York City

"You are doing a strong and courageous thing in trying to get facts before the people. It is GOOD we have men left with that determination."

MARY BOSWORTH, Retired Teacher, Houston

"Your February number just out is excellent. We need more of the same."

H. P. LAYTON, Farmer, Georgetown, Del.

"You have an excellent publication and I shall endeavor to get more of our members to read it."

A. B. STROZIER, JR., D.D.S., Chairman, CONSTITUTION PARTY OF TEXAS, Houston

"In the opinion of this writer, RIGHT's 'rightest' feature is its avowed aim of working to get all Rightwing groups 'a little closer together.' This aim is worthy of all of us . . . To RIGHT, congratulations and many years of successful service . . ."

THE VIRGINIAN, Newport News, Va.

"RIGHT is such an illuminating star in the American movement. I wish that every loyal citizen could read it."

Patriotic Leader, Chicago

"In addition to excellent analyses, RIGHT carries reviews and commentaries on Right-wing books, literature, etc. Newest of the top-level newsletters, every patriot's name should be on RIGHT's mailing list."

HOWARD E. HILL, Public Relations Counselor, Los Angeles

"Your articles are very good and I do not wish to miss them . . . Keep up the good work."

C. A. NOLAN, Small Businessman, Seymour, Ind.

"We get more per minute from it than any other publication. After reading it we find little new in others . . . Your first paragraph should go down in history with those of Washington, and the first sentence in para. 2 ranks with the first paragraph of the Declaration of Independence."

A. B. HAWK, Chairman, THE COMMONGOOD LEAGUE, Tampa, Fla.

"I really do not know how we patriots could manage without its information and services."

MRS. J. A. BROWN, Housewife, San Marcos, Texas

"I think this is disgusting."

P. C. WEAMS

"Though I do not always agree in full with RIGHT I have found it most invaluable for its information about Communism. It has directed me to the proper sources for anti-Communist material, which is of great use to me. I am appalled at the ignorance of even educated Americans about the Communist conspiracy in this country, and their smug disbelief. I use RIGHT to educate them, and they are aghast! There is simply no excuse for any true American not subscribing to RIGHT."

TAYLOR CALDWELL, Writer, Eggertsville, N. Y.

"After reading this issue of RIGHT I feel that it cannot be praised enough. It is certainly the link that has been missing for so long in our patriotic chain. But if you pack any more dynamite in the next issue than the one in subject something is bound to give. I hope I shall not expire from a month's anticipation. . . . Your definition of 'nationalism' is positively superb. This should be widely distributed on a letter-size sheet for easy reading . . ."

LOTTYB KILGO KEECH, THE MILITANT CHRISTIAN, Los Angeles

"We will try to help swell the circulation of RIGHT, which we believe is on the right track."

JOHN K. CRIPPEN, Columnist, Park Ridge, Ill.

"Your newsletter is no end precious to me. Please send me ten copies of the December issue. I'm enclosing one dollar."

MARIE K. MUELLER, Housewife, Orange, Calif.

"In the gathering darkness of impending disaster, it is good to know that there are some who will not compromise, who will not yield, who will fight to the end for the security of our great Republic; and RIGHT and its editors are among them."

MARCUS J. CATLIN, Businessman, Chicago

"Your editorial for December is heart warming, reassuring and enlightening. Never have I heard our problems and conditions so clearly presented . . . There is meat for the mind in your editorial and that is what we are looking for; something real true, frank and enlightening. Thank you . . ."

JOHN BORDEN, President, MICHIGAN FOR AMERICA, Spring Lake, Mich.

"I think publications such as yours are most valuable."

ANNE W. ROBERTSHAW, Housewife, Yucaipa, Calif.

ANONYMOUS

"RIGHT is very easy to read and is so compact that it constitutes much more than in newspapers."

LILLIAN M. DONOVAN, Patriotic Researcher, Eldon, Mo.

"I like your terse and to-the-point style with its many expressive and descriptive labels for persons and events. It pleases me, too, that you have not left out the religious angle, for to me as a student of Bible prophecy that is one of the most important angles in understanding the situation today."

MRS. MARVIN CHILDERS, Housewife, Riverside, Calif.
